ESCAPED LYNCHING.

A Prisoner Surrounded by an Angry Mob.

A ROPE PUT AROUND HIS NECK.

Three Different Times He Is Rescued by the Sheriff and His Deputies—He Was Finally Given a Hearing, Pleaded Guilty and Got Twenty-One Years. At Once Taken to the Penitentiary.

LEBANON, Ind., Feb. 6.—Last Saturday night a negro forcibly entered the home of Mrs. Mary Akers, four miles east of this city, and criminally assaulted Mrs. Akers. He first knocked at the door, saying that he was a hackman from Lebanon, who had brought out some of her relatives. Mrs. Akers did not open the door, as her husband was absent from home, and the fellow then forced his way through a window and overpowered the woman by threats.

After his departure Mrs. Akers went to the home of a relative, some distance away, and gave the alarm. Pursuit was immediately given, and Mrs. Akers' suspicions of the identity of her assailant, it is claimed, were confirmed, by finding tracks leading in the snow to the home of Frank Hall, colored, who lived with his father, Levi Hall, one mile away.

Hall was arrested and brought to this city, but there being danger of mob violence, Judge Neal issued an order for his removal to a place of safety, and he was taken to Indianapolis for the night. Yesterday he was returned here, that a preliminary examination might be had. Meanwhile a crowd of angry men gathered in the streets, and the chances for a lynching were favorably canvassed. Several relatives of the outraged woman were particularly bitter against the accused, and advised that the jail be stormed.

The sheriff came out of the jail at 2 o'clock with Hall to take him into circuit court for a speedy trial. Just as they came out the mob, which had been shivering around in the cold, awaiting Hall's appearance, made a lunge for him. The sheriff and deputies drew their revolvers, but did not fire. The howling mob fought desperately for the negro, and three times got the rope around his head and pulled him over in the courthouse yard.

The sheriff by this time had reinforcements, and Hall was first tugged one way and then another. The sheriff finally got the better of the mob and carried the prisoner into court, where Judge Neal demanded 1,000 men deputized, if necessary, to keep the peace.

The indictment was then read and Hall pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to 21 years in prison.

Judge Neal made a speech imploring the mob to disperse and let the law take its course. Hall was then locked up in Neal's private office.

Fifty deputies were sworn in shortly afterward to convey the prisoner safely to the train on his way to the penitentiary. The deputies had several sharp encounters with the mob, but succeeded finally in landing him on the train. Ten of the deputies accompanied the sheriff to Indianapolis. The prisoner will be taken to the Michigan City prison at once.

Hall said in an interview that he was not guilty of the crime. When asked why he had pleaded guilty, he replied that he did so because he was afraid of being lynched and if he pleaded guilty he would be taken away from Lebanon promptly and thus escape mob violence.

IS GENERAL HARRISON TO MARRY? One Report That He Is, but It Is Denied at His Home.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Feb. 6.—The Daily Evening Democrat of this city has this announcement in its columns yesterday evening: The Democrat has learned through a source which it believes to be reliable that Ex-President Benjamin Harrison and Mrs. Stanford, widow of the late Leland Stanford, the California millionaire and United States Senator, will shortly be united in marriage at Palo Alto.

The ex-president is now preparing to leave Indianapolis for the Stanford university to deliver a series of lectures, and while there will be married to Mrs. Stanford whose wealth is estimated at $20,000,000. Mrs. Stanford was a warm friend of the late Mrs. Harrison and during the late Republican administration the Harrisons and Stanfords formed a close and lasting friendship and one which has terminated in the rumored marriage.

No Foundation for the Rumor.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 6.—From a member of ex-President Harrison's family it was last night learned that there is no foundation whatever for the rumor that he is to marry Mrs. Leland Stanford.

Preparing for Serious Trouble.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Feb. 6.—The situation at Coalburg is such that the state authorities sent sufficient ammunition for a long siege to both Company G, Captain Lyons, and Company I, Captain Peyton, and notified them to be ready at once to report. There are 1,500 miners in the valley who are in a flurry and protection is demanded by the coal mine owners. Some of the "soja boys" are on nettles, awaiting the result of the strike.

Both Legs Crushed Off.

MARION, O., Feb. 6.—Grant Garrett, a mechanic employed with the Steam Shovel company of this city, aged 21 and single, in attempting to get off a moving passenger train, on the Big Four railway, in this city, fell beneath the wheels, crushing off both feet and legs below the knees, besides receiving numerous cuts and bruises about the body.

MALAY PIRATES

Attempt to Board a British Vessel in the Sunda Straits.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 6.—Captain Trefery of the British ship Celeste Burrill, which has arrived here from Luzon islands with a cargo of hemp and sugar, thinks that his vessel had a narrow escape from being boarded by pirates in the Sunda straits, a stretch of water formerly as famous for its Malay freebooters as was ever the Spanish main for its buccanniers.

According to Captain Trefery's story he was bearing up toward the Sunda straits. When about 80 miles from them he sighted a boat filled with men. At first he paid no attention to the boat or its occupants. After the Burrill had passed New Anjer, a Dutch military settlement on the coast of Java, and was well inside the straits, the boat pulled up rapidly on the slow-moving ship, and finally, as it pulled up closer to him, he became suspicious. The boat was crowded with 60 or 70 Malays, and when a man, who seemed to be the leader of the party, hailed the Burrill and asked if they might come aboard, Captain Trefery shouted back a refusal, but said one man might come on deck.

The boat pulled in alongside of the ship, and as soon as the seeming leader of the Malays had grasped the rope and had started up the ship's side, Captain Trefery sheered off from the boat. The Malay pretended he wanted to sell fruit, but Captain Trefery doubted his story.

After remaining on board for some time, and the ship having cleared the straits and reached the open sea, the Malay started to his boat and he and his rough-looking companions disappeared among the islands.

SEVEN YEAR SENTENCE.

Harry Hill, the Swell Atlanta Forger, Will Work Awhile for the State.

ATLANTA, Feb. 6.—Harry Hill, the society forger, has been sentenced to seven years at hard labor in the penitentiary. His lawyers declined to make a motion for a new trial and said that since the conviction they had learned he had written the confession which they had tried to put on the witness Echols.

Hill was indicted for forging the name of Mrs. Fannie Lowrey Porter, wife of a bank president of this city, to several notes. He and Mrs. Porter were great friends. His defense was that she had authorized him to sign her name. She admitted that she had given him money to aid him, and signed some notes for him, but denied having signed six notes which Hill had discounted.

Big Fire in Savannah.

SAVANNAH, Feb. 6.—This city had a fire Monday which proved to be the largest since the great conflagration in April 1889. The loss will amount to nearly $500,000. The burned buildings front on Bay street and were built in 1889. The Savannah Grocery company's building is three stories high on Bay street and six stories on River street, and ran back to the water front. Ferst's Sons' building is two stories on Bay street and three on river front. The weather was very cold and the fire hard to get at, as the buildings stand half way on a high bluff.

Undertaker's Son Kicked to Death.

POMEROY, O., Feb. 6.—A most peculiar and distressing fatal accident happened at Middleport. Dwight, 12-year-old son of Undertaker J. G. Stewart, was sent on horseback to deliver a little of fluid to a house where there was a corpse. When in the street opposite where the grave had been prepared for the deceased the boy was thrown off and kicked to death by the horse. The body was found within a dozen feet of the grave.

Prominent Missourian Dead.

MEXICO, Mo., Feb. 6.—Hon. A. H. Buckner died yesterday of a complication of diseases. He held many important offices including the attorneyship of the State Bank of Missouri in 1852, state commissioner of public works, 1854; delegateship to the peace congress of 1861, and was representative from the Seventh Missouri district in the Forty-third, Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth congresses, voluntarily retiring in 1884.

Fear He Will Cheat the Gallows.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 6.—Sheriff Ryan of Logan, who brought several prisoners to the penitentiary yesterday, says that Ike Edwards, the murderer of Mrs. Sellers, who has been sentenced to hang, is weakening, and they fear he will commit suicide. For this reason he will be brought to the annex at once. If he commits suicide after being brought here the state will have the costs of the case to pay.

Hemmed in by Floating Ice.

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—Captain L. O. Lanson, W. V. Wilkinson and William Kay of the Evanston lifesaving crew who started in a small boat to the intakes of the waterworks in Lake Michigan yesterday, were hemmed in by floating ice and narrowly escaped being swamped off Evanston. A volunteer crew composed of waterworks employees and headed by the lighthouse keeper, rescued the men with difficulty.

Got a Ninety-Nine Year Sentence.

St. Louis, Feb. 6.—William Chute, colored, charged with murder in the first degree in shooting and killing Jose Gilmore, also colored, at 713 North Thirteenth street on Oct. 25 last, pleaded guilty yesterday to murder in the second degree and was sentenced to 99 years in the penitentiary. Chute had been a lover of the woman and was jealous of her and went to where she lived and shot her.

Trainmen Dissatisfied.

CHILLICOTHE, O., Feb. 6.—Trainmen in this city and along the line of the Norfolk and Western railroad are greatly worked up over the recent cut in wages on that line and a strike is liable to occur at any moment.

IN A BLAZE OF GLORY

The Carnival Season Inaugurated in New Orleans.

CREW OF PROTEUS' PAGEANT.

King Rex Received With the Customary Ceremonies That Have Been Observed For Several Years Past—The Number of Visitors as Large as at Any Preceding Carnival.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 6.—The carnival season was inaugurated here last night in a blaze of glory with the brilliant pageant of the crew of Proteus. The trains yesterday brought many belated strangers and the hotels are reported full. The crowds on the streets during the day were quite as large as at any preceding carnival for the past seven or eight years, and the attendance of visitors from the parishes of Louisiana and from contiguous states was conspicuously large.

The reception of Rex during the day was attended by the customary ceremonies on such occasions. The king reached the city, as has been his custom for several seasons past, by the river and was welcomed with salutes of artillery and the screaming noises of hundreds of steam whistles.

The parade of the military was fairly imposing. It was not a great display, but what there was of it was notable in character. There were three visiting companies, the Burgesses corps of Albany, the Dubuque Greys and the Boston Lancers, and each received applause on the line of march for their excellent marching maneuvers and generally creditable military bearing.

After the day parade, the stream flowed uptown and then flowed back again until it packed Canal street from curb to property line and overflowed into the intersecting streets, while St. Charles avenue was dense with a line of people running a mile in length on either side of that broad thoroughfare on both sides of which the parade passed.

The illuminations, this year, were brilliant and as numerous as on any similar occasion, and the street scenes were animated and interesting. The soldiers were on leave in the evening and the leisurely enjoyed the parade from points of vantage along the route.

The subject treated in the magnificent pageant of Proteus was the Shuh Nam, the epic of the kings, and was a beautifully illustrated story in moving tableaux of the Persian kings. Proteus made his first appearance in 1882, and last night's parade was the twelfth of his existence. There were 10 floats in the pageant, which was pronounced as equaling in grandeur any similar effort made by the Proteus crew.

A hundred and fifty thousand people watched its progress through the streets. Rex will appear this afternoon in a pageant embracing 19 floats and Comus will bring the carnival season to an end tonight.

The ball of Proteus last night was an exceptional social event.

FIVE MEN DROWNED.

Two Others Rescued After Being in the Water Twenty Hours.

PENSACOLA, Fla., Feb. 6.—At an early hour Sunday morning seven men left the city in a small sailboat to go to Big Sabine, in Santa Rosa sound, about 12 miles from here. They were: A. H. Rollins, foreman, G. M. Washburn, turner; Ed Moberly, a finisher; Mossick, a machinist, all employees of Harwell's furniture factory of this city; a Mr. Rounder, an unknown man; and Hiram Brown, the latter sailing the boat.

A strong norther was blowing and about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, as they started to return, the boat was capsized. The seven men clung to the boat for hours, but finally Rollins, Washburn, Moberly, Mossick and Brown became exhausted and sank to their death one by one. The other two men held on and were rescued about noon yesterday by a lumber lighter. They were almost insensible.

The lighter has just arrived here, bringing the crows of the drowning. The men were recent arrivals here, having come from Michigan and Iowa to work in the furniture factory. All of them were single men, except Rollins. His wife is expected here in a few days.

A PERSISTENT LOVER

Arrested, Declared Insane and Sent to an Asylum.

ALLIANCE, O., Feb. 6.—Sunday night Miss Mabel Yant, while going home from church with an escort, was waylaid by a man who thrust a pistol in her face and threatened to blow her brains out unless she promised to marry him. The young lady broke away and ran, followed by her escort, until they met Officer Ogling, who subsequently captured the man under fire. He proved to be James Massey, a carpenter, 35 years old, who came here a year ago from Texas, and has been persistent in pursuit of Miss Yant ever since, alleging that he came here after a correspondence with her on her promise to be his wife.

The young lady, who is the only daughter of a wealthy lumber dealer, says that a sister of Massey, formerly a domestic in the Yant household, once induced her to write a letter to Massey, for the sister. Judge Fawcett of Canton held an inquest in lunacy on Massey yesterday afternoon, adjudged him insane and ordered his commitment to the Toledo asylum.

JACKSON, Miss., Feb. 6.—The caucus met again and took their 63d ballot for United States senator with the following result: McLaurin, 55; Taylor, 38; Campbell, 28; Lowry, 20.

LATEST FROM BRAZIL.

Preparations Made for a Battle, but It Does Not Come Off.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—A World special dispatch from Rio Janeiro says: President Peixoto will receive United States Minister Thompson on Wednesday. No foreign diplomat has been received by Peixoto since the breaking out of the revolt, and the exception is now to be made in the case of Mr. Thompson in recognition of the attitude of strict neutrality which the United States government and its representatives have preserved during the troubles in Brazil. It is learned that Admiral Benham is about to send the cruiser New York to Desterro, in the south, to look after American interests there which are menaced by the insurgents.

All is quiet here despite the many wild rumors that are being sent out almost daily.

The Herald's Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—The Herald special dispatch from Rio Janeiro says: The rebel warships in the harbor here formed in line of battle Sunday in front of the city's wharves.

This was done with a view of landing troops, for Admiral Da Gama had received promises that the cavalry in Rio and others of Peixoto's troops would revolt, join his forces and make a landing if possible.

He was doomed to disappointment, however, as no revolt occurred. He seeks recognition as belligerents for his followers today from England, Italy, France and Germany.

As Telegraphed to London.

LONDON, Feb. 6.—A dispatch from Rio Janeiro says: "Admiral Da Gama has given 48 hours notice that he will blockade Rio and has disposed his fleet accordingly. This step is intended to assert belligerent rights for the insurgents."

The action of the foreign commanders is awaited with anxiety.

WILL FIGHT ON THE WATERS.

The Corbett-Jackson Mill May Take Place on Lake Michigan.

LAFORTE, Ind., Feb. 6.—It is now proposed to have the Corbett-Jackson fight on Indiana water, if not on Indiana soil. Capitalists have become interested in the construction of an immense floating pavilion. This huge craft, with a carrying capacity of 1,000, will be anchored off the coast of Lake Michigan, at a point where it would be an insurmountable barrier to the state soldiery.

The Indiana beach is very picturesque with its mountains of sand, and from these eminences it would be possible for thousands to view the fight. Estimates have been made as to the cost of the water craft, and it is stated that $10,000 would be required for its proper construction.

It has been determined to outgeneral Governor Matthews. If the scheme for the fight gladiators to do battle on a floating platform on Fancher's lake, near Crown Point, proves a failure, it is proposed to bring off the mill within easy reach of Indiana soil, which means out in the lake.

PLAINTIFF GETS JUDGMENT.

Another Decision in the Famous Bank Failure at Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 6.—In the suit of G. Lane Taneyhill against Theodore P. Haughey and Hannah C. Haughey, Judge Baker of the United States court yesterday gave the plaintiff a judgment against Hannah C. Haughey for $4,900. It is ordered and decreed that the plaintiff have a lien upon the real estate owned by Mrs. Haughey, and that unless the judgment be paid within 30 days, the real estate shall be sold to satisfy the judgment.

It was alleged by the complainant in this suit that he was entitled to recover from the real estate owned by Mrs. Haughey on the ground that Theodore Haughey had expended large sums of money in improving the real estate in Mrs. Haughey's name. The judge holds that these expenditures of money were wrongful and fraudulent as against the creditors of Theodore P. Haughey and that the same should be charged as an indebtedness from her to her co-defendant, Theodore P. Haughey.

A GREWSOME FIND.

Headless and Limbless Body of a Woman on the Beach.

HAMMOND, Ind., Feb. 6.—Half buried in the snow and ice on the beach near Edgemore, about 10 miles northeast of here, the dismembered body of a woman was found Sunday evening by a party of Chicago hunters. Both of the lower limbs had been severed from the body above the knee joints, the arms were missing from the shoulders and only a mere stump marked where the head had been severed from the body.

The appearance of the legs where they have been severed suggested that the blades of the propeller had torn them off at the knee. The same peculiarity was noticed at the points where the arms and head were missing. No signs of decomposition were to be seen but the flesh where it was left, was white and almost as hard as stone. There was not a shred of clothing or other means of identification found with the body.

Predicted Her Own Death.

WASHINGTON, C. H., O., Feb. 6.—Mrs. Mary Huffman, a well known lady of Sabina, O., died Sunday at 9 o'clock a. m. On Friday she predicted that she would be dead in three days and began to make preparations for the funeral. She worked hard all day Saturday and retired in the evening apparently well as usual, and the next morning was found dead in bed, as she had predicted.

WABASH, Ind., Feb. 6.—Unknown persons tore up and destroyed $300 worth of schoolbooks in a schoolhouse near Lago, this county. No clew.

THE LAST SAD RITES

Will Soon Be Said Over the Remains of Mr. Childs.

THE FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS.

Amid a Profusion of Flowers the Dead Philanthropist's Body Will Be Placed Beside That of His Former Partner and Life-Long Friend—The Printers to Erect a Monument to His Memory.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 6.—The arrangements for the funeral of the late George W. Childs, which occurs this afternoon from the St. James Protestant Episcopal church, are complete. There will be delegations from the Boston and New York Press clubs and a number of New York publishers and prominent editors will come over from New York on a special train.

St. James church has a seating capacity of only about 1,200, and this will barely accommodate the relatives and immediate friends of the family, honorary pallbearers, Ledger employees and delegations from the various organizations which desire to be present.

The floral tributes will be very elaborate. There will be a separate piece from every department of the Ledger office. President Prescott of the International Typographical union yesterday wired to secure a suitable design, and numerous local organizations will send tributes.

The International Typographical union will be represented by two delegates from New York and Philadelphia.

Seats will be reserved in the church in the following order: Members of the family and friends, pallbearers, employees of The Public Ledger, officers and friends of the Drexel institute, women's advisory board of the Drexel institute, Typothetae of Philadelphia, members of the New York press, New York publishers, George W. Childs' division Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Presbyterian Ministerial association, Typographical Union No. 2, German Typographia No. 1, Philadelphia Trades League, Boston Press club, New York Typographical union, International Typographical union, Pen and Pencil club and others.

The following gentlemen will act as Mr. Childs' pallbearers: John R. McLean of Washington, Cornelius Vanderbilt, J. Pierpont Morgan, Chauncey M. Depew, General Horace Porter, Judge Edward Patterson, Colonel Fred D. Grant and Hon. John Bigelow of New York, Enoch Pratt, Beverly Johnson, General Felix Angus and Charles F. Mayor of Baltimore, E. P. Wilbur of Bethlehem, Dr. James MacAlister, Frank Thompson, Judge Henry Green, Judge Craig Biddle, Frederick Frayle, Henry N. Paul, John Lower Welch, Ferdinand J. Droer, George C. Thomas, William M. Singler, L. Clarke Davis, Richard C. Dale, Clement A. Griscom, William V. McKean, Eugene Delano, Isaac H. Clothier, Charles E. Warburton, Joseph M. Wilson, Richard M. Cadwalder, Joseph G. Rosecrater, Hon. John Russell Young and Colonel M. Richards Ankle.

The interment will be in the Drexel mausoleum at Woodland cemetery and will be private.

Typographical Union No. 2, of this city, held a meeting yesterday afternoon and after adopting a suitable memorial, the initiatory steps were taken toward the erection of a monument by union printers of Philadelphia. It was stated that subscriptions for this purpose had already been tendered, and a committee will be appointed later to take charge of the matter.

HAWAIIAN DEBATE IN THE HOUSE The Senate Devotes the Day Discussing the Federal Election Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—The Hawaiian debate again occupied the attention of the house yesterday, a night session being held to permit speeches by those members who desired to talk, but who otherwise would not have had opportunity to do so on account of the limited time allowed. The debate is attracting much less attention in the house than was anticipated. This is perhaps partly due to the abandonment of the policy of restoration of the administration and partly to the fact that the long tariff debate has surfeited the house. The principal speeches yesterday were made by Messrs. Johnson of Indiana, Boutelle of Maine, Patterson of Tennessee and Black of Illinois.

The federal elections repeal bill occupied the entire session of the senate. Senator Chandler concluded his speech, which has extended through the past two or three weeks, and was followed by Senator Palmer, who argued that the law having entirely failed of its purpose and being generally obnoxious, should be repealed. An animated controversy of the franchise qualifications of the state constitutions of Mississippi and Massachusetts took place between Senators Frye and Hoar on one side and Senators Gray and Bate on the other, and is likely to be renewed when the final vote is to be taken on the bill.

No Strike Ordered.

St. Paul, Feb. 6.—Grand Master Sargent of the Brotherhood of Firemen, who is the spokesman of the brotherhood leaders now in the city, concerning the Northern Pacific employees' grievances, when shown the Tacoma dispatch stating a strike would be ordered, pronounced it an unqualified falsehood.

Murder in the First Degree.

ROCKFORD, Ill., Feb. 6.—After being out a little over an hour the jury in the Hart murder trial brought in a verdict finding the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree and fixing the punishment at death.

The Ashland News is authority for the statement that Mormonism has gained a foothold in Lawrence County. What are the officers of the county doing?

Governor JACKSON, the new McKinley Governor of Iowa, advocates "the consumption of American products by Americans." There's nothing wrong in that, but the American stomach will have to be very much enlarged to be equal to the task.

SPEAKING of the appointment of Messrs. R. G. Parry, C. C. Dohy and Dan Perrine to witness the Civil Service examination next Saturday at the postoffice in this city, the Public Ledger says:

"As the Civil Service Commission is supposed to be non-partisan, it's strange?" that at least one Republican or Mugwump was not named as an 'on-looker.'"

Nothing strange at all about it, when you consider the fact that the examiners are all Republicans.

"High tariff on lumber," says an exchange, "has caused the wood choppers of Michigan to revel in hovels on wages less than a dollar a day. High duty on coal has inundated Western Pennsylvania with Hungarians working at starvation wages. High tariff on crockery has resulted in 40 per cent. reduction of wages, and yet the cry of Mammon for recruits from the rank of the toilers meets with ready response. When, oh, when, will the blindness of the masses be cured?"

Photographs Report Better Than Eyes.
At a meeting of the Academie des Sciences, Paris, M. Zenger exhibited two photographs which he had taken at midnight from his window, looking on the lake of Geneva and Mont Blanc. The lake and the mountain are feebly imaged on the plates, although they were both quite invisible to the eye in the darkness. It is well known that many stars, invisible to the eye, are revealed on the photographic plate, and some years ago an advertisement on the hull of the Great Eastern, at Birkenhead, which had been tarred over so as to be invisible, was quite legible in a photograph which had been taken of the vessel.—London Globe.

Modest Abbe Delle.
It is said that the French Abbe Delle once had in his household a very quick tempered relative, with whom he sometimes had animated disputes and who sometimes went so far as to throw books at the abbe. The abbe must have been a person of great amiability and self control. Once, when a particularly large and heavy volume was thrown at him, he caught it gracefully and said: "My dear friend, I must beg of you to remember that I prefer smaller gifts."—New York Mail and Express.

THE ASSOCIATED CHARITIES.

Funds Needed—You Will Contribute by Attending the Entertainment To-night.

The Associated Charities is in need of funds to carry on the work undertaken some weeks ago. There are many appeals for help, and Maysville people have never refused to respond liberally in such cases.

Arrangements have been made for an entertainment at the opera house to-night for the benefit of this worthy cause.

Miss Laura McManis, the noted whistling soloist, will make her first appearance in this city. She has lately given entertainments at a number of points in Central Kentucky, and the Paris-Kentuckian tells of her success. The Daily Journal of Logansport, Ind., compliments her very highly. It says: "Clear, far-reaching, liquid, melodious as the notes of the wild songsters of the forest, she rivals even the birds in the power and scope of her marvelously trained throat and lips. An enthusiastic encore greeted the first number. The last number was 'The Last Rose of Summer' with variations whistled superbly by Miss McManis, who was compelled to return again and again before the audience would cease, and then they were apparently not satisfied."

John Clark Ridpath, the historian, speaking of her whistling concerts says: "It was in every respect a delightful entertainment. The lady executed some difficult and rare music in the choicest style. Her renditions were received with much applause by her audience, and were highly appreciated by cultivated musicians. I heartily commend her and her entertainments to the public."

Miss McManis will be assisted by her sister, Miss Alice McManis, who is a talented pianist.

The Hornblower Wedding.

New York Recorder: "The recent marriage of Wm. B. Hornblower to Mrs. Emily S. Nelson (widow of Colonel Anderson D. Nelson), is much discussed because the bride is a sister of the groom's deceased wife. In England a man cannot marry a deceased wife's sister, it being an offense punishable by fine and imprisonment. But the laws of this State do not forbid, but it is considered a violation of the Protestant Episcopal Church ecclesiastical law, and ministers have usually declined to perform such marriages. Rev. Dr. Cornelius Smith said that before he performed the ceremony he inquired carefully into the facts concerning the former marriage, and told Mr. Hornblower that it was contrary to the law and religious custom of the Church of England. Mr. Hornblower said that he was aware of the fact, but requested that the ceremony be performed. Rev. Dr. Smith, who is noted for his liberal views on all church questions, said that personally he had no objection, and if Mr. Hornblower and Mrs. Nelson were willing he was satisfied."

The McManis Sisters To-night.

Says the Paris Kentuckian: "Misses Laura and Alice McManis have been most successful in their musical entertainments given in the towns in this vicinity, the first of which was given in the Christian Church in December. The whistling of Miss Laura and piano solos by Miss Alice are perfect wonders in the music line, and they richly deserve the large audiences that greeted them. The entertainments are of the most refined order, and generally given in a church or under the auspices of some church society, and are more enjoyable and entertaining than many of the large theatrical troupes now traveling."

These ladies will give an entertainment at the opera house here to-night, for the benefit of the Associated Charities. Everybody should take advantage of this opportunity to contribute to a worthy cause and at the same time spend an evening very pleasantly.

Lent.

At the Church of the Nativity, the Lenten services this year will be: Ash Wednesday, (to-morrow) at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. All week days, except Friday, at 4 p. m.; on Fridays at 7:30 p. m. Sunday services as usual, except that the holy communion will be celebrated every Sunday at the 10:30 service. Easter, March 25th. The Bishop's Visitation, April 8th, the second Sunday after Easter. All are welcome to these services.

It's a Go.

Go to the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. Plans and means will be discussed to the successful organization of a base ball club. All citizens interested in athletics, all players of ball are cordially and earnestly invited. Remember, at 8 o'clock Wednesday night.

GERMANTOWN.

Calamity howlers should come to Germantown, where everything is on a big boom.

On the 23rd instant the celebrated humorist, Ham, of Georgia, is booked for a lecture.

The missionary society are arranging for a grand supper at the town hall in the near future.

Our street lamps are shining and are a grand success, almost making us think we are in a city.

Miss Ida Erlon came home from Lexington and spent a few days with the family, returning on Monday.

On Saturday evening our amateur dramatic club will render the beautiful drama, "The Little Brown Jug," at the town hall.

Lovers of the sport are having a grand time chasing foxes just south of town. We hear a great deal of boasting about "my dog" being the fastest, but we haven't seen any fox tails or scalps.

The death of Tom Moore is deeply regretted by our people. He was always gentlemanly and polite to every passer-by, a plain, straightforward, honest man, one of the noblest sons of the many who have come to this country from the green isle of Erin.

The open session to be held by the literary club will come off on next Friday night at the Christian Church. The exercises will consist of songs by some of the best singers of the town, a paper edited by one who will make it lively, original essays by competent authors, recitations by well-trained elocutionists. There will be no charge for admission, and no doubt there will be a crowded house, so that those who wish to enjoy the exercises had better come early.

"Uncle" Tommie Williams was taken suddenly worse at 1 o'clock Monday morning, and is thought to be dying at this writing.

We welcome our new residents, John Layton in the Willet house, and Thomas Sloop in the house formerly vacated by Thos. Williams, Jr.

Squire Ryan, our efficient Superintendent of the Infirmary, has been suffering intensely from the extraction of a wart from the back of his hand.

Miss Belle Emmons, an estimable young lady of the Sixth ward, has returned home from a pleasant visit with Mrs. Henry Brodt, nee flauk, an old friend. She and her charming hostess complimented our school with a call and were quite enthusiastic with their praises of the physiology recital, which were thankfully appreciated by the class.

John Wallace, since the recent sadly breaking up of his home, has removed to the comfortable home of his only daughter, Mrs. Jack Coughlin. He has the sympathy of the entire community in his present sad bereavement. One of the novelties at the California Midwinter exposition is the Santa Barbara county pyramid. It is 68 feet square at the base and 75 feet in height and is lighted by windows, as the ancient pyramids were not. The front is a reproduction of an old tomb at Luxor, with massive square pillars supporting the winged portal or propylon, which is covered with sculpture in bas-relief. Three typical Egyptian statues surmount the portal—seated figures, with the crossed hands and quaint headdress seen in the statues of the Ramesses in the Memnonium. In the center of the ground floor is the olive oil obelisk which was in the California building at Chicago, and surrounding this at a height of 20 feet is a hanging gallery. Around the sides is hung the Santa Barbara art exhibit.

She Teaches Whist.

Miss Kate Irwin Wheelock of Wisconsin has found a new field in which a bright woman may earn her living. She teaches whist, and has followed that calling for eight years and apparently does very well at it. She is a little woman, with a pale face, but the vivacity and snap of her conversation soon convince an auditor of her self reliance and energy. Miss Wheelock says her novel profession was forced upon her by circumstances. She is a native of Green Bay, but removed to Milwaukee years ago and took a position as clerk in a big store. She did not like the life of drudgery and soon broke its thrall to go west and pre-empt a land claim in Dakota. Returning from that adventurous life about eight years ago, she settled down in Milwaukee as a teacher of whist and recently went to Chicago on invitation to organize and instruct whist classes there.

Psychology.

The new science of psychology will determine the mental laws exactly—the laws of the individual and of society; the laws of aesthetics, of education, of ethics and of every human faculty.

It will compel men to live by these laws, because it will make them plain to all men—as plain as the law of gravity. The world will then go forward because it will see how. We shall then have a higher manhood, because its type will be clear to us. We shall have a new art and a new literature, because we shall know the secrets of beauty. Its standards shall be broader in proportion as they shall be truer. We may then efficiently leave our unfortunate brother by knowing how to make him lovable, and how to make life lovable to him. Psychology will secure to man wealth and art, wisdom and happiness, by making man capable of them. Psychology will make education the chief function of government by giving education a scope heretofore unconceived of.—McClure's Magazine.

A BIG STRIKE.

A Former Citizen of Germantown Interested in a Rich Lead Mine Out in Kansas.

The Republican of Galena, Kan., in its issue of Jan. 13th, says: "One of the biggest strikes ever made in this section and one that carries us back to the booming days of the 'Nevada,' 'Blackwell' and similar strikes of the period when big strikes were of frequent occurrence, is that made by Ricksecker, Savage & Sparks, southwest of the city. We visited the diggings Monday in company with Dr. H. B. Savage, one of the owners of the mine, and came away with the firm conviction that they are 'bigger'n two mules.' They opened onto the big run about three weeks ago, but did not strike the lead until Saturday last. They drifted at a depth of eighty feet and have been cutting up ever since until at present writing they have a face of rich ore at least twenty-five feet in width and thirty feet high with better ore yet in the roof. An idea of the magnitude of this strike may be formed when we state that with two cutters and two back-hands, they will get out this week at least twenty-five tons of clean zinc ore; fifty tons of rough zinc ore and fifteen thousand pounds of lead ore, valued at present market price, at $636.

"The run, commencing at the extreme northeast corner of the lot goes southwest, which means, if it holds good, a great big bank account for the three gentlemen above named. In fact it seems they cannot get away from good luck once it gets onto their trail, for in cutting an air drift in an opposite direction, they ran into another body of rich ore. That the Sparks lease is a rich one is demonstrated by this big strike and the further fact that several other shafts on the same tract are producing largely and improving daily. We consider that section the richest in this mining region and are pleased to know that our friends Dr. H. B. Savage, W. L. Ricksecker and Edward Sparks are in on the ground floor."

Dr. Savage is a son of Dr. C. S. Savage of Germantown. He has a host of friends in Mason and Bracken who will be glad to learn of his good luck.

That Golden Wedding.

Through one of those mysterious lupus penitus that all correspondents get use to the name of Miss Ann Myall, sister of Mr. Ennas Myall, was left out of the list "among other relatives present" at the golden wedding. She came from old England with her father, Moses Myall, and has resided with her brother Ennas' family ever since; a zealous member of the Christian Church and a favorite with her nephews and nieces. One sister is yet in England and she sent with her best wishes a handsome volume of Spurgeon's late electric "Points." The reporter regrets that the BULLETIN's columns were not longer that he might have given a brief mention of the many pleasant ladies and cotemporary gentlemen guests whom he met; of the names of the generous donors of gold and silver souvenirs; of the elaborate banquet which lasted six hours, embracing every viand, fruit, cakes and ices; the names of the lively and handsome grandchildren; the choice music of harp and piano carrying off the inspiring scenes without abruptness, and shedding a repose over the conclusion of the enjoyment. But "the golden" now is recorded in the repository of the past, and we can only refer to it when we feel inclined to indulge in the poetry of reminiscence. J. B. H.

The Lecture at the M. E. Church.

The lecturer, Rev. G. T. Weaver, begs the indulgence of the audience gathered last evening at the M. E. Church for the disappointment of failing to fulfill his engagement. For some unknown reason the express company or the gas company at Cincinnati neglected their duty, as positive promise from both was given to deliver the oxy-hydrogen gas in time for the lecture. Mr. Weaver has gone to the city and will have the gas this evening, and will carry his audience through Scotland, London and into Paris; tomorrow evening through Paris and into Italy, showing ten leading cities, including Pompeii, and ascend Vesuvius. The lecture will commence at 7:30 o'clock, sharp. Tickets on sale at F. F. Gerbrieh's music store, 52 W. Second street. Course tickets, 40 cents; single tickets, 25 cents.

THERE was no standing room inside the church at Mitchell Chapel last night, excepting in the pulpit. The whole congregation have learned the songs and the singing is truly grand. There were two conversions and one addition. Services each day at 10 a. m. lasting not over an hour; also at 6:30 p. m.

THE entertainment given by the Harvard Quartetto, assisted by Miss Coates, at the opera house last night, was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. The singers and the fair elocutionist had to respond time and again to encores. It is a matter of regret that the entertainment was not more largely attended.

THOMAS HAYSLIP came down from Rome, O., Monday and got on a drunk. At the Grand View Hotel he made some insulting remarks to some ladies, and found himself shortly afterwards in the Police Court. It was a plain case and Judge Wadsworth fined him $10 and costs for using insulting language and $1 and trimmings for being drunk.

NAUGHTY GIRLS.

Six West Virginia Maids Wish They Hadn't Stolen a Snap-Shot Camera.

Morgantown, the seat of the West Virginia University, and the home of more straight-laced church members than any other town in West Virginia, is shocked from center to circumference, says a special, by the innocent pranks of six young women, which has been magnified into a scandal by the gossips. The six young women, who are now called the "Six Maids of Athens," are all of them of the best families, and above reproach.

One of their brothers owns a snap-shot camera, and the others were anxious to have their pictures taken. They stole out the brother's camera, and in the privacy of one of their apartments, made good use of it. The camera is a self-loader, and the brother got hold of it before the negatives had been removed.

The girls are photographed in all sorts of shapes and poses. One, a tall, stately blonde, stands with nothing but the garb of Eve and a palm-leaf fan. The other girls are posed in similar positions and vastly similar costumes.

The girls had no idea of the pictures ever being seen by eyes other than their own, and are in a state of frenzy. The negatives have been destroyed but the matter has been talked about till it is almost as bad as though the pictures were on exhibition.

A Weird Love Story.

"The strangest test of will power and endurance ever made," said E. D. Gonsauls of the City of Mexico, at the Southern, "was in Mexico, the characters being a Mexican girl and an American man. They were lovers, and the girl's parents refused their consent to the union, insisting that she should marry a wealthy Mexican suitor. At the suggestion of the girl they agreed to die together, and to test the strength and endurance of each other's love they chose a means of suicide unlike any ever dreamed of before. Food and fruit were placed on a table in the center of a room, occupied by both, the girl having escaped from her home, but being unwilling to elope with her lover. It was agreed that they should starve to death with plenty before them, and should other succumb to nature and partake of the food then both were released from the bond of death, but there should be an everlasting separation. For 12 days they endured the pangs of hunger without a murmur or a thought of wavering from their purpose to die together. The twelfth day the father of the girl discovered her whereabouts, and breaking the door they were carried out, too faint to stand alone. It took them several days to recover their strength, and when they did they were married. This is a true statement, and the American is living with his Mexican wife today."

ST. FRANCIS DE SALES ACADEMY.

The Scene of a Pleasant Entertainment—Celebrating Bishop Maes' Silver Jubilee.

Seldom has it been the writer's privilege to witness so pleasing and so interesting an entertainment as the celebration of the "Bishop's Silver Jubilee" rendered yesterday afternoon at the Academy of St. Francis de Sales. The Exhibition Hall was thrown open to welcome the many friends and admirers of this meritorious institution; and as a result the Rt. Rev. Bishop Maes, whose presence added dignity to the occasion, was greeted by a highly appreciative audience.

It is needless to say, the refinement, the culture and the literary tone that have ever characterized these worthy Sisters from earliest effort to success, all conspired to sustain a reputation that has never waned.

The young Misses who participated in the entertainment displayed to an extraordinary degree how much proper training and systematic instruction can accomplish in the human mind.

WEARY.

I'm old, and the heat of life's battles
Has bleached my brown hair till it's white.
And teardrops that sparkle light diamonds
Have stole from my eyes their old light.
And low, where cold marbles are gleaming,
I laid what the world gave to me;
But high, where the pure ones are waiting,
My treasures again will I see.

Tonight I have heard strains of music
That floated away long ago,
But some mystic spirit has caught them
To chant to me now, soft and low.
I heard an old story tonight, too,
That memory lingered to tell,
Of youth that built castles in midair
That crushed hopes and dreams as they fell.

I've seen an old picture of sorrow—
A vessel that sank in the sea—
But safe in the harbor of heaven
A fair sailor boy waits for me.
I listen in dreams for his footsteps,
I almost can see his white hand
As it lifts from my heart life's dark shadows
And points me to his spirit land.

O Time, I am weary of travel
Life's pathway is lonely for me,
And breezes that whisper about me
Seem filled with a voice from the sea.
And now I am tired—so tired—
And some night I'll lie down to rest
And dream till I wake in the morning
In peace in the home of the blest.
—Florence Bailey Farnsworth.

The Screaming Habit.

No two persons hear exactly alike. The human internal ear is best described by likening it to a grand piano. That instrument has a key for every note; the human ear has a nerve filament for every tone and its variations. Did I say for every tone? That is a mistake. Some pianos have seven octaves, some have eight; some have better tone in one portion of the keyboard than in another. Exactly so with the human ear. Some persons hear acutely; they catch sounds that to others are but silence. Some tones strike the ear drum, but are not conveyed to the brain because their corresponding nerve filament is missing. We know of defective hearing, but we do not apply our knowledge to our reasoning when we are stating our opinions or impressions. To some a high note is a positive pain, and to such ears a soaring soprano will do nothing but shriek. Others will detect the lower tones. Animals are moved out of their wonted calm by the sound of certain notes.

It should be our endeavor to cultivate tones of softness and sweetness. A low tone is the voice of comfort and consolation, of deepest, most sacred emotion. Our society women should do all they can to counteract the screaming habit of Americans. —Di Vernon in San Francisco News-Letter.

Two Ugly Men.

The Duc de Roquelaure was a man of great ugliness and much humor. One day he met in the street a most unlovely looking Auvergnat, who had some petition or memorial to present at Versailles. He immediately introduced him to Louis XIV, remarking that he was under a special obligation to him. The king granted the favor asked for and then inquired of the duke what might be the nature of the obligation. "But for him, your majesty, I should be the ugliest man in your dominions!" I am reminded of Heidegger, the manager of the opera house in the Haymarket when George II was king. One day he laid a wager with the Earl of Chesterfield that he would not find in all London an uglier face than his. After a long search the earl produced a woman of St. Giles' who at first seemed to outvie the manager, but when the latter put on the woman's headgear his superior ugliness was at once admitted. —All the Year Round.

A Chinaman's Claim For Insurance.

One of Boston's insurance men insured a small building which serves an industrious Chinaman both as shop and home. The policy covers damages caused by fire and water, but John Chinaman evidently thought he was protecting himself against losses due to any cause whatever, as is shown by the following letter addressed to the insurance company:

Some bad boy brake my one glass. Now all tore. Come you my house—look—fix new.
JOE LUNO.

Joe expected the company to make good the damage done by the "bad boy," who is the Chinaman's worst enemy in the city. —Boston Traveller.

Criminal Women.

Professor Lombroso, the eminent Italian scientist who holds such very strong adverse opinions as to the ability of women to feel pain as acutely as men do, has lately been pursuing his investigations in another direction, and he has now delivered himself of the unqualified opinion that women of the criminal and immoral type are invariably larger of hands and feet and smaller in the head than average women.

Goat raising is an important and growing industry in Oregon and some other northwestern states. One rancher in Benton county, Or., has a fine herd of 450 goats, which includes a number of thoroughbred Angora bucks. Twenty-two cents a pound is the lowest this man has received for a fleece in a dozen years.

Jack rabbits from the far west are sold in the New York markets. They are sent east in great numbers by firms that buy of the pot hunters. They are sold side by side with the native hare of the east, and each jack rabbit weighs about twice as much as his eastern cousin.

The famous trout ponds of the Catskill mountains are to have an addition in a lake near Emmonsville. Two other new trout ponds will also be prepared in the mountains before long.

FIFTEEN SHOTS FIRED.

One Kentuckian Dead and Four Others Locked Up Charged With Murder.

MOUNT STERLING, Ky., Feb. 6.—At 12:30 o'clock about 15 pistol shots were heard on Broadway and Court streets, and in a few moments it was ascertained that Captain J. L. Bomar of this city and H. Clay Turner of Morgan county, who had been enemies for more than six months, were the parties who brought on the fight, and Captain Bomar was dead.

Four persons have been arrested and jailed—H. Clay Turner, Bruce Turner, James Turner and Thomas Blair, all of Morgan county. Captain Bomar and Mr. Turner were deadly foes; Bomar charging him with having severed the relations between him and his wife.

Bomar was literally shot to pieces. One bullet passed through Clay Turner's clothing and Blair was wounded in the arm.
